Every year, employees prepare and celebrate Halloween on the 31st of October by wearing their scariest, funniest, and most creative costumes to try and win the annual costume competition.

This year, the theme was based on Disney's Alice in Wonderland with an eerie touch. Checkered walls, roses, spider webs, cards, and other decorations related to the theme were prepared by the Human Capital Team to make sure it would be a memorable revelry.

To spice things up this Halloween, the company introduced a bona fide Trick or Treat Kids Parade.

At ten in the morning, the kids proceeded to each site with their eye-catching costumes as they fill their pumpkin bags with variety of goodies. Employees were all delighted seeing the adorable kids smile and laugh while collecting their treats.

Espying the superb costumes of each kid, two of them were announced as winners for the hand-crafted designs created by their guardians.

Kids who engaged in the parade were also given spaghetti and burger as snacks to fully satisfy their immensely exciting experience in the company.

After the parade, employees got the chance to show-off their striking attires for the costume competition. Employees were grateful receiving the substantial and nutritious meal given by the company after they got their photo taken.

To sum it up, each employee was thrilled having witnessed this spine-chilling display and are excited to see what kind of whimsical themes will the company prepare next for next year's black and orange celebration.
